

Breakfast of Champions

... a series of progressive seminars to give you food for thought. Experts from the accountancy, legal and insurance services sectors share their business tips in three 10 minute slots followed by a Q & A session

Trading in the Modern Market Place

Harri Lloyd Davies, Partner with Bevan & Buckland Chartered Accountants will look at the financial factors you need to consider before trading online. He will offer advice on accepting payments online, choosing the right accounting package and managing live stock systems.

Associate Solicitor, Nick Thomas from JCP Solicitors will be talking about trading online. He will address issues about distance selling and electronic commerce regulations. He will discuss the information you must provide to your customers, cancellation rights and what to look out for when selling overseas.

Robert E Jones MBE, Regional Director and Tony Barber, Senior Account Executive from Thomas Carroll (Brokers) Ltd will discuss the insurance requirements and implications of trading online. They will also discuss the risks involved with buying business insurance online.
